

POCA WEEKEND IN JUNE

You are invited to join the club's exciting June 25/26th overnight expedition into the stunning areas of the Serrania de Ronda and the Grazalema National Park. There'll be the perfect balance of scenic traffic-free driving and 'entertainment', with visits to Spain's most enchanting 'pueblos blancos', a visit to an intimate award-winning bodega, Sunday lunch in a secret hidden gem (I know you are intrigued!), and a relaxed overnight stay in the lovely 4-star Hotel Cortijo Salinas (www.cortijosalinas.com), overlooking the lake near Zahara de la Sierra. This beautiful hotel's normal rate in late June, ie High Season, is €120 per couple / double room, but they have offered us the special rate of €90 per double for B&B.

Adrian and Mark, who are organising the weekend, need to know which members will be coming along as soon as possible please. The hotel is turning away other bookings and have asked for a 50% deposit for the hotelroom. Once we have your confirmation, Adrian will place your deposit, and you can pay this to Sally or Peter when we next meet up.

The weather should be perfect. The weekend will be wonderful. We hope you can join us!!

Places are limited so please let us know asap!!! And by confirming you agree to pay 45 euro within 14 days

Welcome

Adrian, Mark, Peter and Sally
